NSSF Praises U.S. House Passage of National Concealed Carry Reciprocity Bill Will Fix NICS Provisions

The National Shooting Sports Foundation, the trade association for the firearms, ammunition and related industries, praised today's 231 to 198 vote passage by the U.S. House of Representatives of the Concealed Carry Reciprocity Act of 2017 (H.R. 38), as amended to include legislative provisions to "Fix NICS," which have long been a priority for the organization.

"With House passage today of H.R. 38, we have cleared a major hurdle toward what will be two major achievements for America's law-abiding gun owners and for our federally-licensed firearms retailers," said Lawrence Keane, NSSF senior vice president and general counsel. "This legislation provides a solution to the confusing patchwork of concealed carry laws and ensures that our citizens' Second Amendment rights do not end at the state line."

 "Federally licensed firearms retailers rely upon the National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) to be accurate in preventing the sale and transfer of firearms to prohibited persons. The Fix NICS Act provisions included in the legislation passed today builds on the successes of NSSF's FixNICS campaign to encourage states to enter all applicable disqualifying records into the FBI's National Instant Criminal Background Check System (NICS) and requires federal agencies to properly report relevant records and hold those who fail to do so accountable," Keane said.

"On behalf of our members, NSSF would like to recognize Congressmen Richard Hudson (R-N.C.), John Culberson (R-Texas) and Henry Cuellar (D-Texas) for their bipartisan leadership in advancing this important legislation," Keane concluded.

Recipes

Ozark Quail

INGREDIENTS

- 2 firm tart apples
- 1 teaspoon olive oil
- 1 carrot, peeled and diced
- 1 celery stalk, diced
- 2 shallots, diced
- 1 cup crumbled Corn Bread
- 1/4 cup chicken broth or canned low-sodium broth
- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter, melted
- 2 thyme sprigs, leaves removed
- 1/2 cup pecans, lightly toasted, half roughly chopped
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 4 semi-boneless quail, wing tips trimmed, rinsed and patted dry
- 1 tablespoon canola or olive oil

PREPARATION

Preheat the oven to 450°F.
 Quarter and core the apples. Dice half of them and set aside. Thinly slice the remainder lengthwise and set aside.

In a medium sauté pan, heat the olive oil over medium-high heat. Add the carrot, celery, shallots, and diced apples and sauté until softened, about 5 minutes. Transfer to a bowl and add the crumbled corn bread, then add the chicken broth, melted butter, thyme, and chopped pecans and toss thoroughly with your hands to combine. Season with salt and pepper.

Sprinkle the cavity of each quail with salt and pepper, then stuff a little of the corn bread mixture inside. Season the outside of the quail with salt and pepper and tie the legs together with kitchen twine.

Heat the oil over high heat in a heavy ovenproof sauté pan just large enough to hold the quail without touching each other. Add the quail and sear, turning occasionally, until golden, 4 to 6 minutes. Transfer the pan to the oven and roast the quail, for 6 to 9 minutes; the breast meat should still be a rosy color. Remove the string from the quail before serving.
